swering to the particular Year of each KING's Reign; the several PARLIAMENTS, and the different TITLES by which our KINGS are styled in the RECORDS.

between the Temple-Gates. MDCCXXXIX.

THE P R E F A C E.

THE most useful and curious Records, relating to our Law and History, are dispersed in so many different Places, that whoever has had Occasion to search for those valuable Treasures, must be sensible of the great Trouble and Difficulty of finding them. Many Records of the same Nature, which ought to be collected into one Place, are scattered in several Offices, as distant from one another, as the Tower from Westminster-Hall. For Instance, the Patent Rolls, are some at the Tower, some at the Rolls Chapel, some at the Petty Bag Office, and some at the Exchequer. But when this is known, still we are at a Loss for want of more particular Directions, to which of these Places we should apply for the Thing wanted; and therefore are frequently obliged to search for it through all the Offices, at a great Trouble and Expence. And even the Clerks themselves, in some Offices (for Want of proper Calendars,) are ignorant of the Particulars under their Care.

These Difficulties have occasioned many Lawyers and Historians to commit great Mistakes, by taking Things on the Credit of those who wrote before them, instead of having Recourse to the Originals themselves.

It is hoped the following Sheets may in some Measure remedy these Inconveniences, and by making the Access to the Records much easier, render them more beneficial to the Publick.

The best Work of this Kind, which hath hitherto been published, is a short
2 State

THE P R E F A C E.

State of the Records, drawn up by Mr. Lawton, Inspector of the Records in the Court of Receipt of the Exchequer, printed in the Report of the Committee of the House of Commons, appointed to inspect the State of the Cottonian Library, Anno 1732, and executed with great Care and Exactness: But that being only a short general State, printed in Folio among several other Matters, and sold at a high Price, it was thought the following Work, which is much more copious and methodical, would be of more general Use; and considering the Size, and Price of it, more acceptable to the Publick.

Besides the great Assistance I had from Mr. Lawton's State, I have consulted Powell, Prynne, Bishop Nicolson, and other Authors; some Manuscripts of Mr. Lambert's, Mr. Agard's, and Mr. Le Neve's (who were very conversant in these Matters) and the several Offices where the Records are deposited.

The

The P R E F A C E.

The Reader may observe, that this Work is not confined only to the Records, in publick Offices, but several material Papers, in private Libraries are also mentioned; and the whole brought into as small a Compass as the Variety of Matter would permit; observing proper alphabetical References, so that any one may readily find what he has Occasion to search for.

To make the Book more useful, the Tables annexed were thought necessary; since without such Assistance it will be very difficult to discover the Dates of many of our ancient Records, or understand the Names of Persons, or Places, mentioned in them.

All possible Care has been taken to avoid Errors, and should any be found, as possibly there may, in transcribing such a Number of Dates and Figures, if they are communicated to the Bookseller, they shall be corrected the first Opportunity.

QUEENS are styled in the Records.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE following Table being intended as a short and ready Method of computing the Dates, &c. of Records, and other Writings, as well ancient as Modern, and to shew what Parliaments have been held: it may be proper to observe, (without entering into the Dispute concerning their Antiquity) that it seems established, they have been held under one Name or other, even before the Conquest, tho' it does not appear the Word PARLIAMENT was generally used by our Historians till the first Year of RICHARD I.

FROM that Period, to the present Time, I have collected the several Meetings, Prorogations, and Dissolutions of our Parliaments from the Records, and where they are deficient, from Historians of the best Authority; but the Loss of many ancient Records, and the Neglect of Historians, in not only omitting the Prorogations, &c. but even differing about the Time when several Parliaments met, make it now impossible to be absolutely certain in every Particular; yet notwithstanding those Disadvantages, I am persuaded, by Experience, the following Account will be found extremely useful, and as correct as the Nature of the Thing will permit.

FROM the Conquest to the Reign of RICHARD I, there is frequent Mention made of GREAT COURTS held, and as some learned Men have been of Opinion, these were of the Nature of Parliaments. I did not think it would be right to omit them, tho' not being warranted by the Records, we must entirely rely on the Credit of the Historians who observe them.

WITH Respect to the other Part of the Table, the Reader will observe, that the Year

Year of our Lord is computed from the 25th of March, and placed against the End, (not the Beginning) of the respective Year of each King's Reign; and under the Name of every King is mention'd the Day, Month, and Year, when his Reign began.

THE following Examples will sufficiently explain the Use of the Table.

To find the King's Reign, and the particular Year of it, answering to the 20th of August, 1077.

Look for 1077 in the second Column, opposite to which is the 11th Year of WILLIAM I, and observing at the Head of the Table, that he began to Reign the 14th of October, shews that the 20th of August, 1077, must be in the 11th Year of his Reign. But if (instead of the 20th of August) you look for the 20th of November, 1077, that must be in the 12th Year of WILLIAM I, because because he began his Reign the 14th of October, and consequently his 11th Year ended on that Day, 1077.

To find the Year of our Lord answering to the 20th of September, in the 4th Year of WILLIAM II.

Look for 4 WILLIAM II. in the first Column, and against it in the second (by observing as above) is the 4th WILLIAM II., which ending the 9th of September, 1091, the 20th of September, in the 4th Year of his Reign, must be Anno Domini 1090.

BOOKS printed for G. HAWKINS, at MILTON'S
HEAD, between the two Temple Gates in Fleet-street.

1. A General Dictionary, Historical and Critical; in which a New and Accurate Translation of that of the celebrated Mr. Bayle, with the Corrections and Observations printed in the late Edition at Paris is included; and interspersed with several thousand Lives, never before published. The whole containing the History of the most illustrious Persons of all Ages and Nations; particularly those of Great-Britain and Ireland, distinguished by their Rank, Actions, Learning, and other Accomplishments. With Reflections on such Passages of Mr. Bayle as seem to favour Scepticism, and the Manichee System. By the Rev. Mr. John Peter Barnard; the Rev. Mr. Thomas Birch, M. A. and F. R. S. Mr. John Lockman, and other Hands.
2. A Report of all the Cases determin'd by Sir John Holt, Kt. from 1688 to 1710. During which Time he was Lord Chief Justice of England. Containing many Cases never before printed, taken from an original Manuscript of Thomas Farresley, Esq; late of the Middle-Temple. Also several Cases in Chancery, and the Exchequer Chamber. The Whole Alphabetically digested under proper Heads. With three Tables; the First, of the Names of the Cases; the Second, of the general Titles; and the Third, of the principal Matters.
- N. B. ' This Work contains a compleat Collection of above
' 950 Cases, all adjudged and decreed while that illustrious
' Lawyer, Sir John Holt, was Lord Chief Justice of England,
' in which he either gave his Judgment or Advice; many of ' which are to be found at large in the best Reports of his Time;
' and the Rest have been procured in MSS. at a considerable
' Expence, which contain upwards of 70 Cases at large, deter' mined by Sir John Holt, and never before published.
3. The Roman History, from the Building of Rome to the Ruin of the Commonwealth. Illustrated with Maps and other Plates. By N. Hooke, Esq; One Vol. 4to.
4. An Enquiry into the Natural Right of Mankind to debate freely concerning Religion; wherein the Maxims advanced by several late Writers upon this Subject are examined. By a Gentleman of Lincoln's-Inn.

Maxima quæque dubia sunt. Corn. Tacit.

5. Lex Maneriorum: Or, The Law and Customs of England. Relating to Manors, and Lords of Manors, their Stewards, Deputies,

BOOKS printed for G. HAWKINS, &c.

puties, Tenants, and others. The Whole being a methodical Collection of the Cases dispersed in the several Volumes of the Law, relating to Copyhold Estates, and to every Thing depending on that Tenure. To which is added, An Appendix of all the Modern Entries of Declarations, Pleas, Replications, Rejoinders, Demurrers, Issues, Special Verdicts, Writs of Recordari, Certiorari, &c. relating to the said Cases. With proper Tables to the Whole. The Second Edition, with Additions. By William Nelson, of the Middle-Temple, Esq;

6. Common Sense: Or, The Englishman's Journal. Being a Collection of Letters, Political, Humorous, and Moral. Publish'd Weekly under that Title, for the first Year.

Humani nihil a me alienum Puto. Ter.

Nil erit ulterius, quod nostris moribus addat

Posteritas: Eadem cupiunt facientque minores

Omne in præcipiti vitium stetit.— Juv. Sat.

7. The Chace. A Poem. By William Somervile, Esq; The Fourth Edition.

Nec tibi cura canum fuerit postrema. Virg. Georg. III.

Romanis solenne viris opus, utile famæ,

Vitæque, & membris. Hor. Ep. XVIII. Lib. I.

8. The Batchelor of Salamanca: Or, Memoirs of Don Cherubin de la Ronda. In three Parts. Written originally in French, by Mr. Le Sage, Author of the Devil upon two Sticks, and Gil Blas. Translated by Mr. Lockman.

Mr. Le Sage is Author of the Batchelor of Salamanca. This the Public would have discover'd, had his Name not been advertis'd to it. 'Tis writ in the same Taste and in the same Style as the rest of the Works which have been publish'd under that Author's Name, and cannot fail of increasing his Reputation. It consists of Incidents which have nothing of the Marvellous, either in themselves, or with respect to the Persons to whom they happen; for which Reason they must necessarily please all Readers of Taste. The Marvellous tires the Imagination, and becomes puerile when carried too far; but Nature, on the contrary, amuses and diverts it."

Journal Literarie, de l'Année 1736, seconde Partie, p. 477.

Now in the Press, and speedily will be Publish'd,

Jus Parliamentarium: Or, The Ancient Jurisdiction of the Most High Court of Parliament over the Inferior Courts in Westminster-Hall, Revived and Asserted. In two Parts. By William Petyt, Esq; late of the Inner-Temple, and Keeper of the Records in the Tower of London.
